TELEGRAPHIC.

"KING OF THE TRAMPS."

He is Winning a Novel Bet.

A DRUNKEN TELEGRAPH OPERATOR MAKES TROUBLE.

Investigation of the Registration Frauds in San Francisco.

Special to the APPEAL

King of Tramps.

Denver, Col., Oct. 17.—Hassan Mahomed, the "King of Tramps," arrived in Denver last evening at 9 o'clock. He was very much begrimed with travel and was glad of the prospect of a week's rest. The "King" started on February 1st from Cincinnati on a wager to walk 10,000 miles in 450 days for $10,000 on the following conditions: He was to begin his journey with one copper cent and stop only at first class hotels. He was not to beg or borrow, or steal, and was to meet and marry on the road a woman he had never met before.

He stated last evening that he had received applications from 15,000 women whom he didn't consider fit to become "Queen of Tramps." On September 17th he married a young woman, a telegraph operator at Ogden. He lost thirty days' time by reason of an injury received in falling through a trestle, and this time has been added to the limit, which expires May 10th next. He comes from San Francisco and is now 300 miles ahead of his schedule time.

Blocked the Road.

Dunkirk, N. Y., October 18.—John Howell, the night operator in the Nickel Plate yard office, blocked the road Saturday night and the yards were badly jammed on Sunday with freight cars, which had been stopped by signals. When the day operator went on duty at 6 a. m. he found a note from Howell in which the latter said that he was tired of work and he wouldn't come back.

Howell, it has been learned; left his office about 11 o'clock and went on a drunk. He had been drinking during the evening, and boasted that he was going to "raise h—l" with the road before morning. When he left he set the signals against all trains on both tracks and opened his telegraph keys. It took several hours to clear the yards. The train dispatcher had been sending orders all night, which had not been received. Howell has not been seen since he left the office.

A Reporter's Monument.

Clinton, Ind., October 18.—In the presence of a large number of newspapermen and others, the monument erected to the memory of Leonard Washburne, the noted sporting reporter for the Chicago Inter Ocean, who a year ago yesterday met his death on the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad while riding on an engine for the purpose of gathering material for an article, was formally unveiled and dedicated. The monument, which is a tribute from the Inter Ocean to its late employe, is of granite, dark blue in color and about six feet in height.

Alliance Men Increasing.

Sacramento, Oct. 18.—The annual meeting of the State Farmer's Alliance was held here today. Reports of officers show a wonderful growth of the organization throughout the State of California.

Don't Like the Paupers.

London, Oct. 18.—A fight is reported on the Galician frontier between Russian and Austrian troops, several being killed. It was the result of the expulsion of Russian immigrants.

The Registration Frauds.

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—The Grand Jury investigation of fraudulent registration has resulted in the summoning of over 50 boarding house keepers and a big sensation is expected.

Rapid Delivery.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 18.—The new system of postal delivery inaugurated today in connection with the street railroads has proved to be a great success.

Caught on Heavy.

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—The whaling schooner Alten arrived tonight from Alaska with a wonderful catch of over 4,100 pounds of whalebone.

Leap Year Proposals.

The young men of Carson are being showered with leap year proposals from all quarters. The system in vogue is not a bad one, but it is very tedious to wade through. It consists of a sheet of paper containing several small ribbons, setting forth in rhyme opposites to each other, just what to do in case the receiver's heart is in good condition, or on what basis he otherwise stands from a matrimonial point of view.

The little verses run about like this:

If your heart to me is true,
Send at once the shade of blue.

If your father has a sack,
Hurry with the shade of black.

If your wife must stay at home,
Keep them all and live alone.

If with you would go through
I guess the color green will do.

If you're not society's best,
Forget this all; 'tis but a jest.

One Carson gentleman received his proposal in a delicately scented envelope and it contained a postscript to this effect:

P. S.—Dear Henry: Don't consider this a joke, as it is not, and I want you to think real hard that the first question is the correct one to answer.

The Silver Nominees.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:

We notice the statement in the Tribune that the Democrats of Ormsby are not grant that Stewart and Newlands are endorsed by the Ormsby county Silver Party. We know of no Democrat who is indignant. We are for silver and we are for the silver champions. Any statement that the Democrats of Ormsby are not for silver is a lie and an insult to our intelligence. We are solid for the ticket nominated by the committee of eighteen, and we propose to elect it. We know of no other silver men in this county or State, running for the U. S. Senate or for Congress on a silver ticket. The Tribune statements only invoke a smile among Democrats.

Yours,

WM. KINNEY,
EDMUND JAMES,
And other Democrats.

Hired a Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Colburn gave a very elaborate party to their immediate friends at the Armory Hall last evening. The affair was one of the best conducted ever tendered Carson society. The Queen of Bohemia ruled from 9 p. m. to — a. m., and even then the guests left reluctantly. Dancing was in the lead but the supper which managed to assert itself during the gaiety lost none of its deliciousness. To use Charlie's own words we can convey volumes to the reader: "We wave so many good friends in Carson, whose company we enjoy, that we simply 'hired a hall', and surrounded ourselves with them and here they are."

An Educational Campaign.

Those who do not realize the immense force of the movement which is growing daily in our State, should not fail to hear Wren and Newlands of the Silver Party at the Opera House tonight.

Go early so as to secure a seat, listen attentively and be convinced that the Third Party is a patriotic one.

Vandervoort at Elko.

General Vandervoort addressed a large audience at Elko Friday evening, and held the close attention of his hearers for two hours. The independent says the general closed with an eloquent plea for the people to stand by Senator Stewart and Mr. Newlands the champions of the free coinage cause in Nevada.

Empire Excursion Train.

There will be a free train from Empire and return tonight to enable the citizens of our sister town to hear Frank Newlands and Tom Wren speak at the Opera House.

Somebody is drawing the record on San Davis in the News. The comparison with his present stand is amusing. —Tribune.

Mr. Parkinson probably does not desire a comparison of back records, but through a generous feeling of reciprocity we append the following clipped from the Tribune of Nov. 6, 1882:

"Will you sell your birth-right for a mess of pottage to such traitorous renegades as Hill and Bartine?"

On the Dead Jump.

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—Fred G. Lenz, the around the world bicyclist, arrived here tonight from Oregon, and will sail by the next steamer.

ALL SORTS.

There are several cases of typhoid fever in town.

Bert Hastings is down on his back with the mountain fever.

Joe Cowing is confined to his bed with an attack of pneumonia.

Ell G. Winnie has filed a petition of nomination for Assemblyman.

Old Christopher Columbus is just at present a more talked of man than Jim Corbett.

Mr. Joe Stocklin, of San Jose, is in Carson visiting his cousin Mrs. J. F. Tranter.

Buy a ticket for the Carson Guard dance tomorrow night, and help swell the gymnasium fund.

Tom Wren the old war horse of the Eastern silver men of Nevada, passed through to Virginia yesterday.

Alex Gordon, one of the men who were thrown out of a rockaway in Gold Hill night before last, has since died of his injuries.

Geo. H. Meyers having resigned his candidacy for school trustee, C. H. Brulin has agreed to allow his name to be used instead.

Joe Lynch, who was reported to have been killed in the Wellington row, is doing first rate, and has a good chance to pull through.

Asst. Dept. Inspector, Laura J. Robinson, Chaplain of Lincoln Corps No. 2, of San Francisco, has arrived in Carson to inspect Custer Relief Corps.

The alarm of fire yesterday morning was caused by a slight blaze at the residence of Mr. Grant. The services of the firemen were not required.

On Monday evening the Reno Opera House was filled with an audience who came to hear Newlands and Stewart. There was no free train from Carson either.

The Capitol Commissioners have awarded the contract for furnishing wood to the Capitol, to the Carson and Glenbrook Lumber Company for $7.50 a cord for split and $8.25 for limb wood.

"Harrison is pledged to us to veto every free silver bill," said John Sherman the other night in Philadelphia. Yet Teller, and other office seekers assert that Harrison is a friend to silver.

Senator Stewart addressed the inhabitants of Hobart last night.

When the Senator is out on a silver campaign he goes from one end of the State to the other and is just as ready to speak to his enemies as his friends.

The report that Jack Prior had died of quick consumption might be before last is untrue. He is the healthiest consumptive you ever saw. He informed a reporter on the street yesterday that there would be no wake over his starved carcass for some time, as whiskey and candles are too high.

Dr. Phillips has arrived in Carson, and will occupy the offices opposite the Bank, which are being refitted. His night call will be at the Arlington, until his family arrives, which will be soon. The Dr. has heretofore been very successful, and is a close student of the advanced sciences in the practice of medicine.

R. M. Clarke offered a petition yesterday for the nomination of M. R. Elstner as State Senator of Ormsby county. It was refused on the ground that Ormsby was entitled to but one Senator and T. B. Riekey now holds that office. This is for the purpose of testing the enactment of the Legislature approved March 3, 1891 on the reapportionment of Senators and assemblymen throughout the State.

Clothing and Furnishing Goods.

John Henderson, representing Wanamaker & Brown of Philadelphia the largest clothing and merchant tailoring house in America will be at the Arlington Oct. 30 and 31, and every two weeks thereafter with a line of Fall and Winter goods. Don't miss this opportunity of getting your clothing for one-half the usual price. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed.

Commercial Lunch.

There will be served during the Summer a regular commercial lunch at Anderson's lunch counter in Weiland's saloon. It will be a hot lunch with soup, beer, tea, coffee or milk, for 25 cents. It is proposed to make this the best lunch in the city for the money, and will run from 12 to 2 o'clock.
